The items listed below are designated as "Directory Information" and may be released at the discretion of the Seminary both within the Seminary community and to individuals, institutions and organizations outside the Seminary community, including, but not limited to, pastors and denominational leaders, churches, parachurch organizations, and denominations.

Under the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, you have the right to withhold the disclosure of this information as described below.

WARNING. Please consider very carefully the consequences of any decision by you to withhold Directory Information. Should you decide to inform the Seminary not to release Directory Information, any requests from persons or organizations within the Seminary community (except for those deemed to have a legitimate educational interest) and outside the Seminary community (except for persons or organizations who have provided or are being asked to provide you financial aid, and certain agencies of the government, as provided for by law) will be refused.

The Seminary will honor your request to withhold Directory Information as described below, but cannot assume the responsibility to contact you for subsequent permission to release any of this information. The Seminary cannot assume any liability for the consequences of honoring your instructions that such information be withheld.

DURATION. This request will continue in force until we receive written revocation of this request from you, even after you have graduated or otherwise discontinued enrollment at the Seminary.

Please read, date, and sign this form to indicate that you have read and understand the details and implications of this policy and request that disclosure of directory information listed below be withheld. ALL such information will be withheld (we regret that we cannot withhold items selectively):

Name, address, telephone number(s), school and degree program, enrollment status (i.e. whether or not currently enrolled), current class load, current class schedule, photograph, dates of admission and enrollment, home state, most recent educational institution attended and degrees awarded, Fuller degrees awarded (degree and date)

I have read the above terms and conditions and I understand their meaning and implications, and request that the Seminary withhold disclosure of the information described above.
