Optional Step: Appeal Citation

If you believe you were not parked in violation of Fuller Theological Seminary parking rules and regulations, you may have chosen to appeal your citation in Step 3. Please note that only people with a valid Fuller login will be able to appeal citations using the online portal. If you are not a current Fuller student, staff, or faculty member and you still wish to appeal your citation, please contact the parking office at <insert contact info here>.

During your online appeal, you will be able to enter an explanation of your appeal as well as to upload any photos or documents that support your case. Please enter as much detail as possible so that the appeals officer will be able to make an educated decision. After you submit your appeal, you will receive communication regarding the appeal decision via email, so keep an eye on your inbox for updates about your appeal.
