

GRI Application Form

General Information

Family name:

Personal name(s):

Date of birth:

Birth place:

Gender: Male Female

Citizenship:

Phone number:

E-mail address:

Residential address:

Academic History

Date PhD degree awarded:

University/College where PhD was attained:

Title of PhD dissertation/thesis:

Name of current institution:

Since earning my PhD I have been teaching as follows (enter institutions and subjects):

You may use this template for your Book Project Proposal. You are welcome to add additional headings or change the heading names as it makes sense for your proposal.

Note: Scholars are expected to be competent in use of computers. GRI does not normally provide computers or laptops, although purchase of equipment can be applied for from scholarship funds.

Scholarship Information

By which modality do you wish to take up this scholarship?

On campus Online Hybrid

For details of the possible modalities, see the further information sheet.

What is the earliest date you are available to take up a GRI fellowship

January - June July - December Year

Leave should be confirmed by a letter from the institution.

My institution has granted me sabbatical leave for 6 months. No Yes

Visa Information

If you plan to visit the Fuller Theological Seminary as part of an in-person or hybrid sabbatical, please answer the following questions:

Have you previously visited/resided in the US? No Yes

In which U.S. states:

During which time periods:

Note: The above response is needed for administrative purposes and will not affect application. Will your spouse accompany you? No Yes

If he/she will accompany you, please provide his or her name:

Note: GRI provides housing for the scholar and spouse only. No children allowed.

Declaration of Intent

If granted a Global Research Institute fellowship, I am willing to make the following threefold undertaking:

- I. I will finish writing the agreed book during my sabbatical period.
- II. I will participate in the Center for Missiological Research scholarly community.
- III. If I travel to Pasadena, I will return home upon completion of my GRI fellowship.

Signature: _____

Date:

Submit by email to cmr@fuller.edu or by mail to: Center for Missiological Research Global Research Institute
135 North Oakland Ave.
Pasadena, California 91182, USA