NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

In accordance with the principles of FASB ASU 2016-14 (ASC 958), the organization has implemented required changes to its audited financial statements for the period ended 6/30/2020. To date, Schedule D has not been updated to reflect changes made by this standard. Thus, we have reported the revised net asset categories from the audited financial statements as follows on Form 990, Schedule D, Part V, Lines 2a-2c:

Line 2a - Without donor restrictions

Line 2b - With donor restrictions

Schedule D, Part V, Line 1f, column (a):

Fuller is in the process of reallocating some of its resources to better meet the future needs of its operations. The first step in this process consisted of reallocating certain investments in real estate to quasi-endowment so that there would be additional sources of funding for new operating initiatives that would better meet the needs of Fuller's students through increased annual endowment withdrawals. Fuller is also in the process of developing its online degrees and program offerings as well as re-defining its degree programs and the required units to better meet the needs of its current and future students. Fuller had made cumulative temporary borrowings against its quasi-endowment to fund operations during prior years of $22,353,533. During the year ended June 30, 2020, the board authorized the undesignation of this amount.

Schedule D, Part V, Line 1f is reporting a net change of $22,353,533 which is inclusive of the $25,713,000 write off and other reclassifications of $3,359,467.

Part I, Line 1a:

At times it is deemed necessary for the President to travel first class due to length of travel and/or meeting preparation time required while in flight. The Seminary considers these instances as business related and therefore it is not included in taxable compensation.

The Seminary occasionally reimburses for the travel of companions when there is a bonafide business purpose for the spouse to travel to a function or meeting.

The Seminary provides a car allowance to select officers who are also employees of the Organization. This allowance is discretionary and is not part of an accountable plan. Accordingly, the car allowance is reported as other taxable compensation on the employee's W-2.

Pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 107, ministerial housing allowances are provided for qualifying ministerial employees. This is not included in taxable compensation. The President and Dean of SIS/SOT met the qualifications for and received a ministerial housing allowance during

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1:

The Executive Committee is made up of 10 Trustees and includes the 3 major operational officers. The Executive Committee is to exercise the power and authority of the board between meetings of the board subject to limitation imposed by law or the board. The Executive Committee, however, shall have no power to elect new trustees, select a president or other chief executive officer, or approve any amendment of the Articles of Incorporation or bylaws.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm and reviewed in detail by the Controller and the office of the CFO. The Controller then provides a complete copy of the return to the chair of the audit committee and to all audit committee members for review. The audit committee follows up with the Controller and CFO on any questions that may arise and a meeting is held to discuss the Form 990 with the Controller, CFO, and independent CPA firm. Once all questions are adequately addressed and all corrections made, the audit committee approves the Form 990 and the Chair of the audit committee recommends approval by the full Board of Trustees. The finalized 990 is then provided to the full Board of Trustees prior to filing the return.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Annually, officers, trustees, and key employees are required to read the conflict of interest policy and to sign and return a completed conflict of interest statement. These are reviewed by the Director of Compliance &

Risk Management. Throughout the year, any transactions undertaken by the Seminary are reviewed for instances of conflict of interest prior to entering into the agreement/transactions. If an instance of non compliance should occur, the Seminary would address it and make the necessary corrections if needed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The Organization receives from The Association of Theological Schools & The Commission on Accrediting a special purpose report titled "Institutional Peer Profile Report." This report references operating statistics, including salary ranges for all executives, faculty, and staff. The report compares the Organization to a customized list of 20 comparable accredited institutions. Data from this report is utilized by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees to set executive salary ranges in a closely competitive and resource limited environment with consideration of effective performance of the individuals. The final decisions are reflected in the compensation packet provided to the President and all officers which would reference approval of the contract in the Executive Committee minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are made available upon request. In addition, our tax return is posted on Guidestar and both our annual audit and tax returns (both the Form 990 and 990-T) are available through our Fuller (external) and Portico (Internal) websites.
