

Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) Application Instructions

Fuller Theological Seminary | International Services Office

F-1 Student Visa & Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20)

The F-1 visa is the most common student visa type and is issued to students who are admitted to a full-time academic or language program at a US institution. Fuller ISO issues Form I-20s, the official three-page document that is endorsed by a designated school official, to admitted students. Once students receive their Form I-20, they can apply for the F-1 visa at a US embassy/consulate in their home country. For questions regarding the I-20 issuance, please contact iso@fuller.edu

Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) Application:

Please read these instructions carefully before beginning the I-20 Application. Incorrect or incomplete information may lead to processing delays and/or the denial of a student visa.

- * A Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) is only issued to students who have been accepted to Fuller Theological Seminary as a student in a degree or eligible certificate program
- * Completion of this form does not guarantee Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) issuance
- * The International Services Office (ISO) cannot process your request until you have submitted financial documents demonstrating your ability to finance your studies
- * Complete the Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) Application and submit via the ISO Dropbox (<https://fuller.tfaforms.net/218124>)
- * Submit a complete Certificate of Eligibility Application as early as 4 months prior to your program start date (refer to Checklist on Page 3)
- * Deadline to submit a complete I-20 application is 2.5 months before the start date of the quarter
- * I-20 processing time will take between 2-4 weeks after submission
