Questions concerning the Fuller degree program for which the applicant is applying, and the applicant's preparation for study towards this degree program:

1. For what Fuller degree program is the applicant applying now?
2. If admitted, what quarter does the applicant plan to start at Fuller?
 - Summer quarter (begins end of June)
 - Fall quarter (begins end of September)
 - Other?

3. What academic degrees has the applicant earned prior to this application to Fuller? Please give the title of the degree, the school, location of the school, the year of graduation, and the applicant's advisor's name. If none, write "none."
4. What work experience, if any, has the applicant had prior to coming to Fuller?
5. What previous service to the Chinese church or the Chinese Christian community (whether in organized church ministries, in psychological counseling practice, or in another profession that nourishes Christian faith, e.g. film-making, publishing, social work, and more) has the applicant had prior to this degree program?

For each kind of service, please provide the following. If "none", write "none."

- a. A brief description of the applicant's duties and time period of the applicant's service;
 - b. The name of the group, organization or church to which the applicant belonged when the applicant gave this service; and
 - c. The name, position, and email address of the applicant's supervisor when the applicant was doing this service.
6. If the applicant already has a Fuller degree, please provide the following for each kind of service the applicant gave to a Chinese church, Chinese Christian organization or Chinese Christian community during the time the applicant earned the applicant's Fuller degree(s) and after the applicant graduated from Fuller. If this is the applicant's first degree at Fuller, please simply write "N/A".
 1. A brief description of the applicant's duties and time period of the applicant's service;
 2. The name of the group, organization or church to which the applicant belonged when the applicant gave this service;
 3. The name, position, and email address of the applicant's supervisor when the applicant was doing this service.

Questions pertaining to the applicant's future service to the Chinese Christian church or Chinese Christian community after the applicant completes this degree program:

7. How does the applicant plan to serve Chinese-speaking Christians (whether in organized church ministries, in psychological counseling practice, or in another profession that nourishes Christian faith, e.g. film-making, publishing, social work, and more) after the applicant completes this particular degree for which the applicant is currently applying? Please provide details as follows.
 - A. If the applicant is applying for admission to Fuller's School of Psychology and Marriage and Family Therapy (SOPMFT):

1. Is there a particular professional position that the applicant seeks to have as a Chinese-speaking, Christian psychologist? Please provide whatever details the applicant can at this time.
 2. Beyond the applicant's profession, what other ways does the applicant imagine serving Chinese-speaking Christians as a psychologist or family and marriage therapist? Please provide whatever details the applicant can at this time.
- B. If the applicant is applying for admission to the School of Mission and Theology (SMT):
1. Is there a particular Chinese-speaking church, Christian organization or community that the applicant plans to serve?
 2. If so, what kind of professional position does the applicant seek within the Chinese-speaking church or Christian community?
 3. Beyond this professional position, in what other ways does the applicant imagine serving Chinese-speaking Christians with the applicant's Fuller degree(s)? Please provide whatever details the applicant can at this time.
8. In the applicant's view, what is the main challenge (theological, spiritual, psychological, or cultural) facing Chinese-speaking Christians today?

How will this particular Fuller degree, for which the applicant is currently applying, enable the applicant to contribute significantly towards resolving this main challenge that, in the applicant's view, faces Chinese-speaking Christians today? (Limit 250 words to question #8)
