

This chart represents general trends in requirements for chaplaincy and is derived from advertised jobs in Texas as of December 2022. It is meant provide students with a general idea of possible requirements in different fields of chaplaincy. Job requirements differ widely according to employer, so students are encouraged to research requirements in their desired field.

*Law enforcement requirements from the International Conference of Police Chaplains