Welcome | Bienvenidos | 환영합니다

Welcome to the 76th Commencement of Fuller Theological Seminary!

Commencement is one of my favorite events of the year. Many people think of it as the end of a long, laborious journey to earn a degree, but the literal meaning of the word has to do with beginnings. Most professional and graduate students at Fuller pursue their degrees after already having engaged in leading and serving, so perhaps a helpful approach to commencements is as seasons of transition: endings and beginnings at the same time. No longer having to complete reading assignments, conduct research, write essays, and more may create space to grow and serve in other ways; we do so, however, in the midst of constant sea and seasonal changes.

Christian service in the 21st century calls on us to negotiate life and ministry amid acceleration and complication. Life happens fast and is often messy. Some people get flustered and frustrated while others flourish. In whatever ways you handle the transitions of life, I pray that you do so with confidence in the fidelity of God. As you end and begin, do so knowing that God is always faithful.

¡Bienvenidos a la 76.ª Ceremonia de Graduación del Seminario Fuller!

La ceremonia de graduación es uno de mis eventos favoritos del año. Muchos la consideran el final de un largo, y laborioso, recorrido para obtener un título, pero el significado literal de la palabra tiene que ver con comienzos (commencement en inglés). La mayoría de los estudiantes de posgrado y programas profesionales en el Seminario Fuller obtienen sus títulos después de haber ejercido ya roles de liderazgo y servicio, por lo que quizá un enfoque útil para las graduaciones es considerarlas temporadas de transición: finales y comienzos al mismo tiempo. El ya no tener que leer textos, realizar investigaciones, escribir ensayos y más puede abrir espacio para crecer y servir de otras maneras; lo hacemos, sin embargo, en medio de un mar constante y cambios estacionales.

El servicio cristiano en el siglo XXI implica aprender a navegar la vida y el ministerio en medio de la aceleración y la complejidad. La vida avanza rápidamente y, con frecuencia, es desordenada. Algunas personas se alteran y frustran, mientras que otras florecen. Sea cual sea la forma en que afrontes las rápidas transiciones de la vida, oro para que lo hagas con confianza en la fidelidad de Dios. Al terminar y comenzar, hazlo sabiendo que Dios siempre es fiel.

플러신학교 제76회 졸업식에 오신 것을 환영합니다!

졸업식은 제가 일 년 중 가장 좋아하는 행사 중 하나입니다. 많은 사람들이 졸업식을 학위 취득을 위한 길고 때로는 힘든 여정의 끝이라고 생각하지만, 이 단어의 문자 그대로의 의미는 시작과 관련이 있습니다. 플러신학교의 대부분의 전문직 및 대학원생들은 이미 리더와 봉사자로 활동한 후 학위를 취득하기 위해 노력합니다. 따라서 졸업식을 끝과 시작이라는 전환의 시기로 생각하는 것이 도움이 될 수 있습니다. 끝과 시작이 동시에 존재하는 시기입니다. 더 이상 과제를 읽고, 연구를 수행하고, 에세이를 작성하지 않아도 되는 것은 다른 방식으로 성장하고 봉사할 수 있는 공간을 만들어 줄 수 있습니다. 그리고 우리는 끊임없는 계절의 변화 속에서도 이를 실천해 나아갈 것입니다

21세기에 기독교적 섬김은 가속화와 복잡함 속에서 삶과 사역을 조율해야 하는 소명입니다. 삶은 빠르게 흘러가고 혼란스러울 때도 많이 있습니다. 누군가는 당황하고 좌절하지만 다른 이들은 변명하기도 합니다. 여러분이 어떤 방식으로 삶의 급격한 전환기에 대처하든지, 하나님의 신실하심에 대한 확신속에서 대처 하시기를 기도합니다. 여러분의 끝과 시작을 맞이할 때, 하나님은 언제나 신실하신 분이심을 기억하며 나아가시기 바랍니다.

The History of Fuller Theological Seminary

In the mid-1940s, radio evangelist Charles E. Fuller was reaching thousands through his popular broadcast, The Old Fashioned Revival Hour. But he dreamed of spreading the gospel even further: through a new school on the West Coast that would train young evangelists and missionaries.

Harold John Ockenga, theologian and pastor of Boston's Park Street Church, shared Fuller's vision but encouraged him to broaden it. The church needed not only evangelists, he said; it also needed pastors who were intellectually sound, culturally attuned, and solidly evangelical.

Their combined vision led to the founding in 1947 of Fuller Theological Seminary—named not for Charles E. Fuller but for his father, Henry Fuller. This “center for evangelical scholarship” welcomed its first class of 39 students, who met in the Sunday school rooms of Lake Avenue Congregational Church, sitting in child-sized chairs as they learned from a charter faculty of theological giants: Everett Harrison, Carl F. H. Henry, Harold Lindsell, and Wilbur Smith.

The student body grew rapidly in subsequent years and, in 1953, the seminary—with enrollment now at 250—moved to the newly constructed Payton Hall on Oakland Avenue, its first and now iconic building at the center of the Pasadena campus. In the 77 years since its founding, Fuller Seminary has become a place of rich diversity and theological leadership beyond what its founders could ever have imagined. Two schools covering four major disciplines— theology, missiology, psychology, and marriage and family therapy—allow Fuller to offer a full range of master's and doctoral programs to students in Pasadena, Houston, and Phoenix, as well as online to students everywhere. Today, tens of thousands of Fuller graduates serve in churches and communities around the world. And in 2021, Fuller launched its own digital learning platform, FULLER Equip, creating non-degree paths for learners in diverse vocations and allowing even more people to access the riches of Fuller's scholarship and innovation.

Yet from Charles E. Fuller's original vision until now, Fuller Seminary's core commitment has remained the same: to equip leaders who share Christ's hope and healing with the church and the world.

About the Fuller Seminary Seal and Logo

Fuller Theological Seminary was founded in 1947. Its official seal was developed in 1951, at the seminary's incorporation. The seal has served ever since as a representation of Fuller's mission and purpose, used to mark institutional documents and significant events in the life of the seminary. Along with the richly meaningful symbols of the cross, shield, and crown, the seal features Hebrew text taken from Isaiah 61:1, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me to proclaim good news.”

The refreshed Fuller Seminary logo is designed to communicate a foundation based on a long-standing biblical tradition, updated to reflect our digital-forward future. The icon is a three-paged book, the pages of which form a stylized “F” shape, reinforcing both the word “Fuller” and our biblical roots.

Out of consideration for other guests...

Please remain in your seat unless you find it absolutely necessary to leave the auditorium, and keep children in their seats, as well. Entering the aisles to approach the stage or the graduates' seating area, or the graduates as they go to the stage or return to their seats, interferes with other guests' enjoyment of the service. There will be ample opportunity for photographs after the ceremony concludes.

Due to fire regulations and concerns for safety, the use of camera tripods or any other such equipment in any aisle or row cannot be permitted. When using a camera of any kind, please be careful not to interfere with other guests' view.

Seats may not be saved for guests who have not yet arrived. Unoccupied seats must be available to all guests who are present.

Thank you for your kind consideration and cooperation.

Psalm 23

Tom Hsieh, Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul.
He leads me in right paths for his name's sake.

*Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord my whole life long.

여호와와 나의 목자시니
내게 부족함이 없으리로다
그가 나를 푸른 초장에 누이시며
של 만한 물가로 인도하시는데도다
내 영혼을 소생시키시고
자기 이름을 위하여
의의 길로 인도하시는데도다
내가 사망의 음침한 골짜기로 다닐지라도

해를 두려워하지 않을 것은
주께서 나와 함께하심이라
주의 지팡이와 막대기가
나를 안위하시나이다
주께서 내 원수의 목전에서
내게 상을 차려 주시고
기름을 내 머리에 부으셨으니
내 잔이 넘치나이다
나의 평생에 선하심과 인자하심이
반드시 나를 따르리니
내가 여호와의 집에 영원히 살리로다

Academic Regalia

Academic regalia is a modern representation of the everyday dress of both teachers and students in the early European universities of the medieval era. Their long gowns and hoods were quite practical. Over time, the uniforms evolved and became more symbolic than practical. Different designs and colors were developed to identify and represent various schools and degrees.

Gowns

Fuller, like most American graduate schools, uses black gowns for both master's and doctoral degrees. The master's gown is lighter in weight and has an unusual long sleeve hanging below the wrist, with an opening for the wrist. The doctoral gown is heavier, with bell sleeves and distinctive black velvet facings and three black velvet bars on each sleeve.

Hoods

The master's and doctoral hoods are distinguished by length, shape, and the width and color of their velvet trim. Doctoral hoods are longer, with wider trim and a more open design. The trim colors vary according to the Fuller degree:

Dark Blue

Doctor of Philosophy (in any area of study)

Scarlet

Master of Divinity

Master of Theology (in any area)

Doctor of Ministry (wider trim)

White

Master of Arts (in any area of study)

Golden Yellow

Master of Science in

Marriage and Family Therapy

Doctor of Marriage and Family Therapy

(wider trim)

Doctor of Psychology (wider trim)

Orange

Doctor of Intercultural Studies

Doctor of Global Leadership

Caps

Like many American institutions of higher education, Fuller uses the black mortarboard for all degrees. The tassel is black for master's degree candidates and gold for doctoral degree candidates.

Faculty Regalia

The Fuller faculty have received their doctoral degrees from a variety of institutions around the world, so their regalia is quite diverse. European schools and certain older and larger American schools often exhibit more variety in the colors and designs of their gowns, hoods, and caps, while most American schools, such as Fuller, follow a standardized academic costume code.
